Dear Parent/Guardian

I'm sure many of you are aware of all the "rumblings" around the issue of Grace Gospel Church in Pinetown, and their affiliated church organization, CTMI, which is based in Mauritius, both of which have been discussed on Carte Blanche this past Sunday evening and East-Coast radio on Monday morning. These have raised many questions, and rightly so. Therefore, we felt it necessary to inform you, the parents, of our stand regarding them.

OB, Globe and Four12 are all youth ministries of Kloof Harvest Church. We, as a church, have not had nor will have any involvement with Grace Gospel Church. Two years ago, we discussed this issue with the other senior pastors of the Kloof Pastors Fraternal at length, and we were all in agreement regarding certain issues that have now become public knowledge. We are not comfortable with, nor do we agree with, some of the areas/doctrine/practices of Grace Gospel Church. Our stand and views as expressed in this letter are endorsed by every church represented at the Pastors Fraternal, a list of which is attached at their request.

As always, stories get blown out of proportion and can be very one sided. Whether or not they are a cult is a difficult assumption to make.

We do however firmly disagree with any form of division in a family. We try to promote unity and continually encourage our young people to respect and honour their parents.

Our goal as youth ministry is to connect young people with God, and to help them learn to love God, love people, to enjoy life and live it with purpose.

Both the church and our youth ministries have an open door policy. We welcome your questions and are always available to answer them either by email, phone call or to personally meet with you. We understand that these "rumblings" could possibly cause you to become anxious about your child who you are entrusting to our care. If that is the case, you are more than welcome to come and join us on a Friday, to meet our team and see what happens here.

Thank you for your support

Kind Regards

Roger and Yvonne
